CERTIFIED PROTECTION OFFICER INSTRUCTOR (CPOI)

APPLICATION

IFPO's Certified Protection Officer (CPO) Program is rapidly becoming a widely recognized industry certification. This recognition requires qualified individuals to instruct and deliver the program. The CPOI certification is an opportunity for security program instructors, educators, and administrators to obtain recognition and tangible proof of their efforts in bringing professional development programs to career security officers.

The CPOI Application is a process in which qualified individuals can be recognized and rewarded as committed professionals as Certified Protection Officer Instructor (CPOI).

Applicants for the CPOI must meet the following prerequisites to apply:

- At least five (5) years of specific experience in teaching, in the role of an instructor or equivalent.
- At least three (3) years of experience in comprehensive protection work.
- Post Secondary degree, certification or specialized training from a college/university or technical institution.
- Current Certified Protection Officer Certification.
- Member of the IFPO
- Completion of comprehensive CPOI application

Successful CPOI's would receive the Digital IFPO CPOI Certificate

- Physical Certificates and Wall Plaques available at additional cost.

The Certification Committee will review each application for final granting of certification.

Certification fee of $200.00 must be submitted prior to review. Fees will be refunded if certification is not granted.

10% discount is available for group registrations of five or more and IFPO Associate Members.

IFPO Corporate Members are entitled to a 15% discount.
